This is the second consecutive year that leading firm Everest Group has positioned Genpact as a Leader and the first year as both a Leader and a Star Performer. These designations reflect Genpact's increasing success in delivering services to a growing number of banking and financial services clients around the world.

Everest Group's prestigious annual study analyzes the shifting dynamics of the BPO landscape and assesses BPO service providers across several key attributes. For this report, Everest Group classified 17 BPO service providers on the Everest Group Performance, Experience, Ability, and Knowledge (PEAK) Matrix into three categories of Leaders, Major Contenders, and Emerging Players.

"Genpact's high positioning reflect its ability to increasingly meet the banking BPO industry's demands for analytics services to help improve customer operations and risk management," said Rajesh Ranjan, vice president, BPO Research, Everest Group. "Genpact distinguished itself in 2012 with the highest year-over-year revenue growth (15%) in the Leaders category, with the most new deal wins among companies assessed, and with its tie for the largest share of the banking BPO market at 24%."

"Everest Group's recognition of Genpact as a 'Leader' and 'Star Performer' in the global banking BPO market validates our extensive global operations delivery excellence and deep banking and financial services domain and process expertise, especially our unique Smart Enterprise Processes (SEP<sup>SM</sup>) framework for making business processes and operations more effective," said Mohit Thukral, senior vice president, Banking, Financial Services, Insurance and Healthcare, Genpact. "With unprecedented regulatory changes, Genpact combines smarter processes, analytics, and technology to provide solutions that help our clients navigate increasing industry volatility and transform their businesses to achieve greater financial stability and profitability."

Genpact's banking and financial services practice generates business impact for a number of large clients across commercial leasing and lending, investment and retail banking, investment services and wealth, and mortgage services. Genpact provides Lean and Six Sigma-trained process re-engineering, risk management, and analytics expertise to banking and financial services organizations along with targeted

SEP<sup>SM</sup> services and proprietary and transformative business-process-as-a-service (BPaaS) and software-as-a-service (SaaS) solutions.

Leaders in the Everest PEAK Matrix™ assessment embody the top quartile performance across market success and delivery capability. Delivery capability is evaluated by Everest Group on four key areas: scale of operations, scope of services provided, capability and investment in tools and technology, and delivery footprint. Everest Group measures market success as a direct function of revenues from banking BPO deals. Everest Group confers the Star Performers title to providers with the strongest forward movement year-over-year on the PEAK Matrix.
