

Genpact Service Center in Uberlandia is an opportunity to Uberlandia professionals

The new service center in State of Minas Gerais, Brazil, must hire around 100 new employees in 2014

São Paulo, April 30, 2014 – In March, the new Genpact Service Center begun its operation in Uberlândia city, State of Minas Gerais, Brazil. It opens up new possibilities to professionals in finance and accounting in the region, which may have the opportunity of career growth, working with Genpact in payable and receivable accounts, treasury and controllership, among others areas.

Genpact is present in 24 countries and employs over 60,000 professionals who provide services to about 800 clients. In Brazil, Genpact has been present for more than three years in the country, performing operational excellence and business process outsourcing projects for local and global customers.

To develop their skills, Genpact has a training program in partnership with Harvard Business School and attractive working environment. "We provide an average of 50 hours of training for each employee, higher than the market average (45 h per man) amount," explains Margareth Cardoso", Director of HR at Genpact in Brazil.

According to Margaret, the company seeks candidates that want to contribute to the growth of the customer, with integrity and willingness to learn. "Our focus is to get people engaged to Genpact and customer, regardless of age, ethnicity and gender. We want to attract top talent and help them in developing their full potential", adds the director.

During 2014, Genpact will hire about 100 employees in the city of Uberlandia, who will join the team of Genpact, which currently has more than 65,000 employees worldwide. Vacancies will be publicized on www.vagas.com/genpact
