

Genpact Appoints Stacey Cartwright to Board of Directors

NEW YORK, Nov. 6, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Genpact (NYSE: G), a global professional services firm focused on delivering digital transformation, today announced that Stacey Cartwright, former deputy chairman and chief executive officer of Harvey Nichols Group, has been appointed to its Board of Directors. The appointment is effective immediately.

"It is an honor to have Stacey join the Genpact Board," said Robert Scott, chairman of the Board, Genpact. "Her extensive experience as a transformative leader will be extremely valuable to Genpact. We look forward to her contributions."

After studying economics and finance at The London School of Economics, Cartwright spent three years in the audit practice of PricewaterhouseCoopers before being recruited to join Granada, a media and leisure conglomerate in the United Kingdom. Cartwright spent more than a decade at Granada in various leadership positions where she helped lead substantial growth and widened her experience across many industries. She then became the chief financial officer (CFO) at EGG Plc, an internet bank company before becoming the CFO and then executive vice president of the luxury brand, Burberry Group Plc. Cartwright was most recently the deputy chairman of Harvey Nichols Group, a chain of retail stores that offers fashion and beauty products as well as food and wine. Under Cartwright's leadership, Harvey Nichols underwent significant brand rejuvenation and increased its digital capabilities.

"We are excited to have Stacey join our board. Her impressive track record of leading and transforming numerous companies, combined with experience serving on public company boards, will be a great asset to our company," said 'Tiger' Tyagarajan, chief executive officer, Genpact.
