Genpact Named as a Leader in the Everest Group Insurance Analytics and Insights PEAK Matrix 2020

Genpact's digital and domain expertise recognized for driving transformation for clients

NEW YORK, Aug. 18, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Everest Group, a leading research and consulting firm, has named Genpact (NYSE: G), a global professional services firm focused on delivering digital transformation, as a Leader in the Insurance Analytics and Insights (A&I) PEAK Matrix® 2020.

"Leveraging its strong domain knowledge and artificial intelligence capabilities, Genpact has emerged as one of the leading players for analytics and insights services in the insurance marketplace," said Skand Bhargava, vice president, Everest Group. "Its analytical capabilities, combined with the global scale of insurance operations, place it well to support insurance carriers' growth and transformation agendas, and its clients praise Genpact's project management, delivery, and execution."

The report evaluates 17 service providers across areas such as vision, capabilities, and market impact, of which Genpact surpassed its peers in the vision and strategy categories. Everest Group highlights Genpact's comprehensive and experienced talent pool, including data scientists, data engineers, and actuarial professionals who address complex business problems. The report also recognizes the digital business platform, Genpact Cora, combined with Genpact's artificial intelligence solutions across deep learning, machine learning and neuro-linguistic programming which deliver sophisticated, readily deployable, and verticalized analytics offerings.

"As customer experience gets elevated, even more in the post-COVID world, insurers are looking to utilize data analytics and insights beyond traditional data management services," said Sasha Sanyal, global business leader, Insurance, Genpact. "Our deep understanding of insurance processes and digital expertise enables insurers to adapt to the rapidly changing needs of their customers giving them timely insights to proactively anticipate and solve business issues and provide their clients and employees a seamless digital experience."
