Genpact Ranked 6th in the '50 Best Firms For Data Scientists To Work For 2023' List by Analytics India Magazine (AIM)

Recognition demonstrates Genpact's continued commitment to building a culture of curiosity, learning and innovation to develop strong data, analytics and AI-skilled workforce

NEW YORK, June 5, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Genpact (NYSE: G), a global professional services firm focused on delivering outcomes that transform businesses, today announced that it has earned the 6th spot in the Analytics India Magazine (AIM) Research's annual list of the '50 Best Firms for Data Scientists to Work for'.

To determine the list, Analytics India Magazine (AIM) surveyed hundreds of employers in India to glean insights into how they have created an exemplary work environment for data scientists. The evaluation was based on five key parameters – learning and support, productivity and engagement, benefits and well-being, rewarding excellence and workplace diversity, equity and inclusion. All the firms appearing on this list have robust workplace policies, have undertaken initiatives to build a conducive work environment and provide all the resources needed for data scientists to grow and succeed in their careers.

"As businesses today undergo massive technological disruption, combining data and AI with a robust people-centric culture has emerged as the biggest differentiator," said Harsh Kar, Global Data and Analytics Business Leader, Genpact. "At Genpact, fostering a purpose-driven culture, that encourages our people to continuously learn and embrace different skills and perspectives, is core to who we are and foundational to how we innovate and leverage data, technology, and AI to drive value for ourselves and our clients. This award is a testament to that."

This is Genpact's latest recognition added to its list of growing industry and workplace awards, including –

- Forbes list of Best Employers for Diversity 2023
- Fortune's America's Most Innovative Companies 2023 list
- World's Most Ethical Companies 2023 list by Ethisphere Institute
- Forbes America's Best Employers 2023 list
- 2023 Bloomberg Gender Equality Index

Genpact is up from the 7th spot last year on the same list. See the full list of 50 Best Firms for Data Scientists to Work For, here.
