Genpact Earns 2024 CSO Award for Enterprise Security Controls Monitoring Platform

Genpact's Infosec360 in-house platform and dashboard earns honors as innovative security control solution providing exemplary business value

NEW YORK, June 18, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Genpact (NYSE: G), a global professional services and solutions firm delivering outcomes that shape the future, today announced that it has been recognized with the 2024 CSO Award from Foundry's CSO, a leading source for breaking news, analysis, and research on security and risk management.

This year's award recognizes Genpact's efforts in enterprise information security and cybersecurity through the company's innovative, in-house platform – Infosec360. Genpact's Infosec360 serves as a centralized dashboard of security controls, providing the Company with a platform to monitor critical security controls, validate their effectiveness, and identify areas needing attention. This visibility enhances Genpact's capabilities through increased confidence and assurance around its security controls.

"The cyber threat landscape continues to be challenging," said Vidya Srinivasan, Global Leader - Enterprise Risk, Infrastructure, and Logistics, Genpact. "This award validates Genpact's continued commitment to staying focused on managing cybersecurity risks, as well as its endeavors to deploy innovative solutions using automation and AI to scale control validation."

This is the eighth consecutive year Genpact has received a CSO award (formerly known as the CSO50 award) for demonstrating outstanding business value and thought leadership through its leading security projects and initiatives.

"The stakes grow higher every day for security leaders and their teams, and this year's CSO Awards honor the very best efforts to tackle challenges from an expanding threat landscape," said Beth Kormanik, Content Director, CSO Conference & Awards. "From devising new threat detection methods and cyber analytics to initiatives addressing AI threats, zero trust, and data protection, these projects are at the forefront of innovative security thinking and represent true business value for their organizations. We congratulate the winners and look forward to celebrating them at the CSO Conference & Awards event this fall."

Genpact will receive the award at the upcoming 2024 CSO Conference & Awards event, which will be held October 21-23 at the We-Ko-Pa Casino & Resort in Fort McDowell, Arizona.
