Genpact Named a "Sustainable Corporate of the Year" for the Third Consecutive Year by Frost & Sullivan

- Reinforces Genpact's Leadership in AI-Powered Sustainability
- Highlights Genpact's commitment to driving positive environmental impact through innovative, advanced technology solutions

NEW YORK, Feb. 17, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Genpact, a global advanced technology services and solutions company, today announced that it has been recognized as a "Sustainable Corporate of the Year" in the services vertical for the third consecutive year by Frost & Sullivan.

This prestigious award underscores Genpact's commitment to environmental stewardship through innovative sustainability initiatives across its sites in Gurugram, Noida, Jaipur, and Hyderabad, which received individual leadership recognition. These sites have implemented innovative solutions such as:

- Advanced water recycling methods to reduce energy consumption and improve water quality
- Electric vehicles (EVs) and EV charging infrastructure to enhance sustainable transportation
- Solar photovoltaic systems to reduce Scope 2 emissions and advance renewable energy adoption.

This recognition highlights Genpact's leadership in integrating advanced technology expertise and collaborative innovation to enhance its global sustainability efforts and develop cutting-edge green IT solutions. The company has deployed several IOT-based sustainability solutions, an in-house Sustainability Data Collection tool, and an AI-enabled ESG reporting system.

"Technology is not just a tool for business growth; it's the key to a sustainable future," said Vidya Srinivasan, Global Infrastructure, Risk and Logistics Leader, Genpact. "At Genpact, we're not just talking about sustainability, we're harnessing AI and advanced technology to drive innovation and build a greener tomorrow. This award validates our vision: a world where technology empowers a sustainable future for all."

Now in its 15th edition, the Sustainability 4.0 Awards celebrate organizations that embed sustainability principles into their business strategies. The recognition honors companies that innovate and adopt practices to drive long-term value creation and resilience in a rapidly evolving market. Participants are evaluated based on their integration of purpose, people, planet, and partnership to achieve holistic, sustainable growth.

"Frost & Sullivan is proud to have partnered with Genpact for nearly a decade, supporting their sustainability journey through structured annual assessments and feedback," said Rahul Sharma, VP & Global Head, Digital Transformation & Sustainability, Frost & Sullivan. "Genpact has consistently advanced its ESG commitments by embedding sustainable practices into its operations, from energy-efficient buildings and renewable energy adoption to water conservation and waste management initiatives that minimize environmental impact. Additionally, their people-focused programs—promoting inclusion and employee well-being while expanding opportunities in tier 2 and 3 cities—highlight their strong commitment to social sustainability. We commend Genpact's dedicated efforts in driving meaningful and lasting ESG impact."
